

Prosocial Behavior:

Contextually appropriate behaviors that support a person's academic, social and emotional growth.

Prosocial Behavior Examples:

Asking other students to play at recess, walking quietly in school hallways, raising a hand to speak.

